

Aisha Word
College Counselor

Ms. Word currently serves as Lead School Counselor at Howard High School of Technology in Wilmington, Delaware.

Ms. Word leads efforts in providing equitable access and opportunities for all students by creating and implementing a comprehensive school counseling program that focuses on college access initiatives, enrichment program partnerships and student engagement. She is passionate about advocating for student equity and access and supporting students in a holistic manner, by addressing students' social/emotional development, academic, college and career goals. Ms. Word has served and collaborated on educational advisory boards, working groups and panel discussions across the state with the goal of advocating for young people, collaborating with educational professionals and designing partnerships that could improve student outcomes.

Ms. Word earned a bachelor's degree in Fashion Merchandising from the University of Delaware, an MBA and a Master's in School Counseling from Wilmington University. During her downtime, she enjoys spending time with her family.